

Ellsworth American.

GEORGE ADAMS, { 12 BOSTON.
AMASA SARGENT, }

---

Coal! Coal!
THE subscriber keeps constantly on hand all the kinds of Coal for Stoves and Furnaces, and the Cumberland Coal for Blacksmiths.

possible advocates in that sort of which consists in the exchange of Maine is a great place for rall specimens of musk, as well as "Wide Awakes." From C. S. Wild of Olman was received a magnificent buck, christened "Prince of Wales." He wore fine antlers, was of beautiful proportions, exceedingly fat, weighing 150 lbs. dressed. He was held at a fane

's Cherry Pectoral.